

Street Food

Street food is fast and easy food. People buy it outdoors –in markets, at bus stations, at the beach, and in other public places. Fast food (pizza, hamburgers) isn't street food. Fast food is the same around the world, but street food is different in every country.

1 CIRCLE THE RIGHT OPTION. THEN READ THE THREE PARAGRAPHS.

There is / are much / many vegetarians in INDIA; so much / many types of Indian street food haven't got some / any meat. Chat (small pancakes with Indian sauce and some / any yoghurt in them) is / are a / an popular street food. Much / Many people like pani puri, too. Pani puris is / are balls with potatoes and sauce.

How many / much corn can you eat? In MEXICO, there is / are corn with butter and cheese everywhere. Also, the Mexican bread, tortilla, is / are often from corn. There is / are usually beans and vegetables in tortillas. There is / are sometimes some / any meat, too. But be careful –Mexicans love hot chillies in their tortillas, too!

Visitors to MOROCCO love the street food. You can have a / an big meal on the street there. You can buy soup, meat kebabs, chicken and much / many types of salads. How many / much different things do you want to taste?

2 READ AGAIN AND ANSWER THESE QUESTIONS.

1. How is street food different from fast food?
2. What is in Indian panCakes?
3. What is in pani puri?
4. What types of food are often in tortillas?
5. What types of Moroccan food does the text mention?

LISTENING EXERCISE: FOOD AROUND THE WORLD

 Listen to Dan and Carol talking about street food.

- a) In which country is each person at the moment?
Dan is in _____ and Carol is in _____.
- b) What season is it in each country?

 Listen again and answer the questions.

- 1) Which city is Dan in? He is in _____.
- 2) Who is from Peru? _____ is from Peru.
- 3) Is there any meat in papa rellena? Yes / No, there _____.
- 4) Who doesn't like beans? _____ doesn't like beans.

papa rellena